Discussion Points	Previous year colour scheme was not very positive, as bars showing results were in red, positive outcomes should be in green, or if colour not relevant any colour other than red or green would be better (as red could be perceived as bad, danger etc) Where tables/charts are showing results, we should be mindful of colours as dark colours do not make data easy to read. Boxes with costs relating to maintenance expenditure in 2019/20 report card were good and clear to read and understand. Did not like example shown (Cernach) that had no explanation relating to tables. All previous DHC Report Cards have been easy to read and understand and well presented.
